A Prayer for Justice for the Marginalized

O Source of Truth and Compassion,
Hear the cries of those silenced by systems of power,
The ones overlooked, undervalued, and oppressed.

You see the hidden burdens they carry,
The pain masked by resilience,
The dignity denied by injustice.

We ask for justice—not delayed, not denied—
But bold and swift, like a river surging through dry lands.
Let your light shine on every corner of inequality,
Exposing lies, revealing truth,
Empowering the voices that have long been unheard.

Strengthen those who work for justice—
Activists, advocates, neighbors, and leaders—
Grant them courage, endurance, and wisdom.
And stir the hearts of the indifferent,
So they may no longer look away.

May we not seek comfort in quiet neutrality,
But stand in solidarity with the brokenhearted,
The displaced, the forgotten,
Until equity is more than an ideal—
Until it is reality.

Amen.
